

Jacob Aranza
Pastor, Our Savior's Church

Jacob Aranza has been in ministry for more than forty years. For more than twenty-five years, Jacob was a youth communicator speaking to students in public schools and conferences around the world. He has been a guest speaker with Billy Graham, Promise Keepers, Focus On the Family, Campus Crusade and Youth for Christ. He is the former chaplain of the New Orleans Saints and a best selling author.

In 1998, Jacob and his wife Michelle founded Our Savior's Church in South Louisiana which now has campuses in Broussard, Lafayette and Opelousas. He has been instrumental in planting churches throughout the Gulf Coast region and currently helps oversee numerous churches.

Jacob has been married to his beautiful wife Michelle for over thirty years. They have six children five sons and one daughter.