Throughout American history, God’s word has been the catalyst and guide for churches, ministries and movements to create social change. Often, churches seem to align either on the right or the left. How can your church remain biblically grounded and socially conscious, making a difference in diverse and hurting neighborhoods? Explore the role of government and church in serving our communities and honoring God.

BREAKOUTS—SESSION TWO

PASTORS, POLITICS, AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY: NAVIGATING THE PASTORATE FROM CITY COUNCIL TO CONGRESS—Congressional A Room (Lobby Level—behind Main Lobby escalator)

Jeremy Dys, Senior Counsel, First Liberty Institute

Many pastors wonder what they can and cannot do when it comes to politics, candidates, and speaking to the issues of the day. Whether it is providing invocations before city council meetings, navigating land use disputes with the county commission, or speaking prophetically on the political issues of the day facing their congregation, pastors need to know what the law permits. We will bring clarity to this issue and provide resources that help you to navigate this issue while boldly standing for the Truth.

SUPPORTING YOUR SPOUSE WHEN THEY STAND FOR TRUTH—Bunker Hill Room (Ballroom Level)

Marion Johnson, Wife of Dr. Ron Johnson, Jr., Living Stones Church, Crown Point, Ind.;
Lawana Perkins, Wife of Tony Perkins, President, FRC

Ministry is a team sport and ministry spouses are the Most Valuable Players. Standing up for Jesus and standing firmly on the Word of God not only requires great faith and courage, but unwavering support. Now, more than ever, we face an assault on everything we hold dear. As pastors and ministry leaders rise up to proclaim the Gospel and its practical implications for how to live it out in society, the encouraging support of their spouses are critical to this mission. Often overlooked, undervalued, and rarely rewarded is this vital contribution. In this breakout for ministry spouses, you will be strengthened, inspired, and equipped to further God's purpose of standing by your ministry mates while they stand for truth.

DEMOGRAPHIC SHIFT: HOW BUILDING BRIDGES WITH THE HISPANIC/LATINO COMMUNITY CAN LEAD TO A PERMANENT FAITH-BASED PRINCIPLED MAJORITY—Lexington Room (Ballroom Level)

Pastor Obed Escobar, Community Relations Director, Center for Arizona Policy

The Anglo (and African American) church in America must build bridges to the Hispanic/Latino pastors and churches. Assuming the statistical data to be correct, projections place the growth of the Hispanic/Latino population to be near or at 133 million people or over 30% of the nation's total population by the year 2050. As a group, they resonate with FRC's conservative message of protecting the principles and faith based ideologies of our Nation (human life, nurturing biblical family and standing for religious liberty.) However, they mostly vote for the party whose platform is arguably opposed to these principles and antithetical to the teachings of their cultural upbringing. In 2016, we saw significant erosion of margin in what were solidly conservative voting states like Texas, Arizona, and Georgia due in large measure to demographic shift. Other states that were once winnable like New Mexico, Colorado, and now Nevada, seem out of reach for the same reason. How can we go about having conversations and building relationships with the faith leaders of the Hispanic/Latino community that will translate into policy advocacy and voting that is multi-issue and values-based as opposed to single-issue? This breakout will not only analyze the challenge, but will propose strategic solutions and culturally relevant insight.

KEYS TO MAKING YOUR CHURCH A HOUSE OF PRAYER—Regency D (Ballroom Level)

Rev. Pierre Bynum, National Prayer Director, FRC

Pierre Bynum, for 12 years FRC's Chaplain and National Prayer Director, will share what he has seen to be the keys to leading a body of believers to become a genuinely praying people, such that their church is called by friends and foes, alike, a "House of Prayer for all nations" as Jesus said it would be (Is 56:6-8; Mt 21:13; Mk 11:17; Lk 19:46). These keys will be helpful to you whether your church is at square one, or well along the way. Praying churches are the greatest need in America today.
