

WHY is Wal-Mart supporting homosexual activism?

On August 21, 2006, the “National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce” announced a “partnership” with Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.

This means . . .

- Wal-Mart is now a “corporate member” of the “National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce.”
- A Wal-Mart vice president will now serve as an advisor to the “National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce.”
- Wal-Mart will now sponsor (pay for) some of the programs of the “National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce,” including two conferences.
- Wal-Mart will go out of its way to purchase products from businesses with “Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual or Transgendered (LGBT)” owners.

Wal-Mart has never excluded homosexuals from being employees, customers, or suppliers.

But why must they pander to radical homosexual activists? The “National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce,” Wal-Mart’s new “domestic partner,” favors abolishing the definition of marriage as the union of one man and one woman.

How can Wal-Mart keep its reputation as a “family-friendly” store and company if it continues to use consumer dollars to fund radical social activism?
