

A black and white portrait of Billy Graham, an elderly man with white hair, wearing a dark suit jacket, a light-colored sweater, a white shirt, and a patterned tie. He is looking slightly to the right of the camera with a serious expression. The background is dark and out of focus.

The legacy we leave behind for our children, grandchildren, and this great nation is crucial. As I approach my 94th birthday, I realize this election could be my last.

I believe it is vitally important that we cast our ballots for candidates who base their decisions on biblical principles and support the nation of Israel. I urge you to vote for those who protect the sanctity of life and support the biblical definition of marriage between a man and a woman. Vote for biblical values this November 6, and pray with me that America will remain one nation under God.
