The President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20500
U.S.A.

Dear Mr. President:

We, the Evangelical Association of the Caribbean (EAC) write in support of the concerned Christian Ministers and Church Leaders from the Caribbean region (including the Bahamas), who hope and pray that the United States, under your leadership, will once again cast a light from "The City upon a Hill" of which your American forefathers and President Ronald Reagan so frequently spoke.

This letter, which was signed by participants to the Trinidad Alert 2017; the Bahamas Alert 2017 and the St. Vincent and the Grenadines Alert Conversation 2017 Conferences, is now penned to you for your careful consideration and appropriate response.

Who Are We

The Evangelical Association of the Caribbean (EAC) is a regional ministry working with local congregations within the Caribbean to join in common concern to live and proclaim the Good News of Jesus in their nations. EAC is a network that links 11 National Alliances of Evangelicals and a growing number of denominations and agencies working among more than 5-million evangelicals in the region.

Mission

In a spirit of Servanthood, the Evangelical Association of the Caribbean exists to unite Evangelicals in the Caribbean giving them a regional identity, voice, and platform to extend the Kingdom of God through Christ-centered proclamation of the Gospel to all peoples, discipling the nations, and the transformation of societies.

We are Caribbean and minister throughout the islands of the Caribbean, including the Spanish, French, English, and Dutch islands and including those Central and South American countries which traditionally relate to the Caribbean islands, namely Belize, Guyana, Guyane (French Guiana), and Suriname.

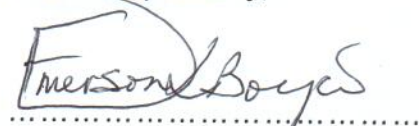

EAC is the Caribbean regional grouping of the World Evangelical Alliance that consists of seven regional alliances, more than 126 national evangelical alliances, 100 international organizations, and an estimated 600 million evangelical Christians worldwide.

Today, EAC seeks to strengthen local congregations through national alliances, supporting and coordinating grassroots leadership and seeking practical ways of showing the unity of the body of Christ. It looks to the future with vision to accomplish God's purposes in discipling the nations for Jesus Christ. Together we make a difference, impact Caribbean societies, and bring real and lasting change in our region.

In view of the above-mentioned statements and based on the request contained in the correspondence addressed to you, Mr. President, we implore you urgently to review this matter, to revoke the relevant executive orders and policies, and thus to restore to "The City upon a Hill" the bright moral beam that once shone from it.

Please accept our heartfelt prayers for your success in making America morally great again.

Most Respectfully,
