

President Donald J. Trump
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington DC 20500
USA

January 31, 2017

Dear President Trump,

We write to you as concerned Christian ministers and churches from the Caribbean region (including The Bahamas) who hope and pray that the United States, under your leadership, will once again cast a light from “The City upon a Hill” of which your American forefathers and President Ronald Reagan so frequently spoke.

Sadly, during recent years, that City has too often cast shadows instead of light. We refer specifically to the policies of the U.S. State Department and other government agencies involved in foreign policy that have undertaken to coerce our countries into accepting a mistaken version of marriage.

It is not only the view of our Christian churches, but the testimony of the recorded history of millennia of civilization, that marriage can only be between a man and a woman. This was certainly a truth embraced by the Founders of your country, who pledged their dedication to “the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God.” Why should we be forced to believe otherwise?

The centrality of the promotion of same-sex marriage to U.S. foreign policy was reflected in President Barack Obama’s creation of a new State Department position: “Special Envoy for the Human Rights of LGBT Persons.” Not one of us regards any person – homosexual or otherwise – as possessing anything less than the fullness of our inalienable, God-given human rights. But is this what was meant by then-Secretary Hillary Clinton’s announcement that “gay rights are human rights, and human rights are gay rights,” a statement repeated exactly by Secretary John Kerry? She meant something very much different.

The problem should be self-evident. We have our rights by virtue of being human beings, and not by anything else – not our ethnicity, not our religion, not our race, not our tribe, and certainly not our sexual orientation. The promotion of “gay” rights must come at the expense of human rights because the two are immiscible. One is founded on the “Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God” and the other on moral relativism, which eviscerates the very idea of natural rights. If you have one, you cannot have the other. As it turns out, the Obama administration, among others, has shown this to be so, as so-called “gay rights” are pre-empting human rights, such as freedom of religion, freedom of expression, and freedom of conscience.

In the United States, you have recently seen several of your government agencies using executive orders to foist transgender confusion through the bathroom issue on your public schools by threatening the loss of federal funds. Comply, or be defunded.

Please understand that this same kind of coercion is being used against our countries to force us to fall in line with the entire same-sex agenda. In this letter, there is no room to enumerate the various ways in which this is happening. As Christian ministers and churches, we hope and pray that we and our flocks will always choose to suffer for Jesus Christ rather than comply with a lie. How ironic that it should be the United States that might place us in this position.

We implore you urgently to review this matter, to revoke the relevant executive orders and policies, and thus to restore to “The City upon a Hill” the bright moral beam that once shone from it.

Please accept our heartfelt prayers for your success in making America morally great again.

Respectfully,

[289 signatures from Christian ministers and church leaders in The Bahamas, Guyana, St Maarten, St Vincent, Trinidad and Tobago]
